

A Peek At Whitetail Club's Stunning New Lakefront Clubhouse

Idaho's premier mountain-based residential community, Whitetail Club, has unveiled its newly-built member Clubhouse and it is a thing of beauty! The one-of-a-kind retreat overlooks over 300 feet of lakefront on the shores of tranquil Payette Lake - perfect for the upcoming summer season.

Designed to promote unity among owners and their families, this exclusive haven offers experiences for those of all ages. New concepts include dedicated areas for teens and children, as well as a lively adult playground named 'The Clubhouse Bar,' complete with a fireplace, indoor and outdoor bar service and views of live entertainment during warm months. Additional dining options include the addition of three new stellar restaurants named, 'The Clubhouse Restaurant', casual eatery 'The Boathouse' and 'The Private Dining Room, perfect for wine lovers, complete with a new glass-enclosed wine cellar.

For the adventurous thrill seekers, The Boathouse is their go-to spot, offering season-ready gear such as paddle boards, kayaks, canoes, as well as a variety of outdoor excursion options such as off-property hiking, biking, horseback riding and zip lining. Exclusive beachfront access allows for a quick taste of Payette Lake, a perfect way to keep cool during the summer months without having to leave your lounge chair and refreshing beverage.

With everything this Clubhouse has to offer, it won't be a surprise if members will have a hard time breaking away. From Spring to Summer and on to McCall's legendary winter months, Whitetail Club members will be lounging in luxury year-round. Learn more at whitetailclub.com
