WHITETAIL CLUB

McCall, Idaho

This is luxury on the edge of the wild. Set in the spectacular Salmon River Mountains at an elevation of 5,000 feet amidst glacier-carved lakes, Whitetail Club offers a unique mountain lifestyle in Idaho's untamed terrain. The premier private community in the Pacific Northwest, the club is a thrill-seeker's paradise, the lush landscape of its backyard calling to doers and dreamers alike. Seasons present their own prospects for adventure and relaxation—from exciting ski runs lauded by National Geographic to ancient hot springs.

In this rugged landscape, two-time U.S. Open winner Andy North and Roger Packard created an award-winning, 18-hole par-72 golf course rated by Golf Digest as one of America's 100 Greatest and one of the Best Resort Courses by Golfweek. Befitting its setting, the course offers views of ponderosa pines, placid trout ponds, and sprawling green vistas.

Former PGA Tour Pro and Whitetail Club Real Estate Sales Executive Joey Snyder says the course has some of the best greens he's ever played. And some of the best wildlife. "When playing golf amongst nature's majestic backdrop, it's not rare to spot whitetail deer, mallards, bald eagles, or even the occasional moose or black bear," says Snyder. The Club's state-of-the-art virtual training facility, The Studio, allows members to keep their games sharp year round. Perhaps the most highly anticipated week of the year is the Men's Invitational, with four days of intense play, culinary events, signature cocktail parties, and a roaring awards ceremony.

For golfers, there's no more convenient spot to live than in The Fairways, strategically located along the golf course. The 34 spacious townhomes offer two luxurious interior styles rich in mountain elegance. For those seeking to build a world-class mountain and lake view home without the guesswork, the Design Build Collection streamlines the process with an exclusive collection of custom-home designs. Decidedly Idaho, these designs bring the mountain and lake views closer to home with sun-drenched interiors and spacious decks perfect for entertaining or soaking up the magnificent scenery.

Named one of the 2023–24 Platinum Clubs of America Top 150 Country Clubs, Whitetail Club represents the best in remote, rustic-modern living with world-class golf at the heart of its active lifestyle.
