About: This stunning property is situated on more than two acres and is curated with custom high-end furnishings, interiors, and marble and granite countertops. The home offers spacious bedrooms, including a charming bunk room that comfortably sleeps seven and features two separate side-by-side showers. For entertaining, the lower level offers a recreation room and bar complete with a refrigerator and butler's pantry. It's an ideal space for family gatherings, complemented by an adjacent gym and a sunken hot tub just outside. Adding to the convenience, the entire home is easily accessible via a three-floor elevator. The Whitetail Club's golf course, designed by Roger Packard and Andy North, is considered one of the top courses in the state and plays 7,200 yards in length. Its training facility has Trackman 4 simulators and players can hit onto live greens. The Club also boasts a 17,000-square-foot clubhouse, indoor tennis and fitness, lakeside activities at The Marina, dozens of trails and The Cove Spa.
